Ernest Haywood Released on a Bond of $10,000.

WAS APPLAUSE IN COURT

Accused at Once Left for Home of His Aged Mother-Six Are Granted Bail-A Bank is Chartered.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) RALEIGH, N. C., June 3.—Ernest Hay-wood was released to-day under $10,000 bond for his appearance at the July term Ludlow Skinner February 21st. The rul-ing of Justices Douglas and Walker, of ing of Justices Douglas and Walker, of the Supreme Court, granting ball was read by Judge Douglas at noon before an immense audience, and within thirty minutes the bond was made up and approved and Haywood was a free man, being driven in a carriage to the home of his aged mother on Newbern Avenue in company with his three brothers, who were with him in court throughout the habeas corpus hearing. The bondsmen are A. W. Haywood, William Saunders, H. E. Litchford, J. F. Ferrall, W. Z. Blake, Edgar Haywood, Dr. F. J. Haywood and C. T. Balley, each of whom qualified as being worth more than the $10,000 bond required. The following is a notable feature of the court's opinion allowing ball: "After a careful consideration of all the testimony and argument of counsel, we are of the opinion that, as the case is presented to us, under the rule laid down in State vs. Herndon, 107 N. C. 334, the petitioner is entitled to ball."

isent, with the others previously allowed bail at $1.3 70 each, were to-day granted bail at $1.3 70 each, were to-day granted bail in the 1 win of $5,000 each.

Judge Brot vn says in his decision that the purpose shown in breaking into Jones' room a was not to murder, but to drive him from Wilson, an unlawful act in such a case where murder ensued he holds that though a conspiracy has been entered into, yet; under the laws of North Carolina it is mun der in the second degree and this is builable. In his opinion Judge Brown deciares that the judges have it in their discretion to grant bail in any case without exception. He states that the charge against the men is serious and that for this reason he fixes the bail at $5,000 each.

BANK CHARTERED.

The Bank of King's Mountain was chartered to-day, under the new State banking law, with $25,000 eapital. F. Dilling, J. M. Williants and C. A. Dilling being among the prin vipal incorporators. Three negro boys avere brought here this morning from New Hunover county to serve an aggregate of fifty-one years in the penitentiary for committing a burglary in Williantson. Two of them serve twenty years each and the other one eleven years.

The stockholders in the Raleigh Leaf Tobacco Company, the purpose of which is the advancement of the interests of the Raleigh murket, met last night and appled plans for a new leaf wirehouse, with prize house and stemmery attached. It is expected that the contract will be awarded within the next few days. Over one hundred of the business nien of the city are stockholders in the company, it is the determined purpose of the pro-

Harry J. Rubin Gets Damages from the R. & P. Company,

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHESTERFIELD, VA., June 3.—The case of Harry J. Rubin against the Richmond and Petersburg Electric Railway Company, which has been on trial in the Circuit Court now for six days, was at last argued before the jury to-day, which awarded the plaintiff damages to the amount of $1,500. The suit was for $2,700, in its course through Chester, the creephone company's wire had been broken in two by the weight of the sleet, and that the northern end was suspended across the trolley wire of the Richmond and Petersburg Electric Railway, thus charging the small wire with the heavy voltage of the railway wire's current. It seemed to the railway wire's current. It seemed to the two losers by the flames that pile of the two companies concerned were flable to them for the damages sustained, but which was liable or whether there was a joint liability was the question. Suits were therefore brought by each—L. Blacker and H.

Petersburg Electric Railway Company, and the suit in court to-day was the and the sult in court to-day was the first of the four to be tried.

ALLEGED SLAYER OF GEORGE DAVIS

Elmer Lewis is on Trial in Elizabeth City Court.

Elizabeth City Court.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEWPORT NEWS, June 2.—The Elizabeth City Court is trying the case of Elmer Lewis, charged with shooting George Davis in the cottage of Isabel Jordan in Phoebus one night during Christmas week, George Davis was killed the last Saturday night in December. On the following Monday morning Isabel Jordan, in whose house he was killed, reported that she had found the body. Investigation showed that he had been shot through the heart. Isabel Jordan was arrested, tried and there was a hung jury. In the meantime she stated that Lowis had done the shooting. Lewis had absconded to Cincinnati.

He is a veteran of the Civil War, and when he applied for his pension he was apprehended, and brought here last week by Deputy Sheriff Edwin Curtis. Lowis was acquitted.

Nine of the contractors here have yielded to the demands of the striking carpenters. This probably means the settlement of the strike, since these contractors will employ practically all the striking carpenters now remaining in the city.

Noble Sons, and His Eloquence Arouses Great Enthusiasm-At Other Places.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
MANASSAS, VA., June 8.—The annual day under the auspices of the Ladies Memorial Association and the United Daughters of the Confederacy. Those who participated marched from the courthouse to the cemetery, where appropriate exercises, consisting of prayers, music and readings, were held and the graves of the dead soldiers decorated with beauticourthouse, where they were addressed by the Hon. John Goode. Several times to the echo. He paid many loving tri-butes to the heroes, both living and dead, of the Civil War. His tributes to the of the Civil War. His tributes to the women who aided and comforted the soldiers were especially beautiful. The following named veterans were presented with crosses of honor: Simpson Harrison, L. A. Marsteller, John A. Herrell, Henry Holland, and John A. Meetz. What might have been a serious wreck was averted here last night by a tramp. While a freight crew was doing some shifting upon a siding, a car was overturned and fell upon the main track, unknown to the railroad employes. The overturned car was discovered by the tramp just before No. 33, a south bound through train, was due to arrive, and he promptly reponted the accident to railroad employes and No. 33 was flagged just in time to avoid a wreck.
